Northeast Mississippi Community College is pleased to present a manufacturing camp designed specifically for ages 12-16. Campers will design and build a product experiencing for themselves world-class technology. They will learn how to create a product in design engineering and see it through to production in manufacturing machining. They will learn electrical circuits, quality control systems and perform tasks required by North Mississippi’s advanced manufacturers.

Register Online at: www.nemcc.edu/workforce